

Call for Health Kits

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) has issued a call for Health Kits, which provide basic necessities to people who have been forced to leave their homes because of human conflict or natural disaster.

- What is Sager-Brown?
Sager-Brown is the UMCOR depot in La. just across the Texas border.
- How often do you accept/send out health kits?
We accept kits year round and your kits will be resupplying the kits that have already left for Haiti.
- How are they shipped?
Shipments will go to military transport departing to the island on a regular basis for now.
- Who is collecting the kits?
Kits will be delivered to: Old River Terrace UMC, 161 I-10 East,
Channelview, TX, 77530

Please follow the directions exactly. Include all items; do not add items that are not on the lists.

Note: All items must be new.
