

Moon Over Buffalo

by Ken Ludwig

October 10, 11 and 16, 17, 18 at 7:30 PM;
October 12 and 19 at 2:00 PM

This hilarious, madcap comedy centers on George & Charlotte Hay, fading stars of the 1950's, as they perform Private Lives and Cyrano De Bergerac in rep in Buffalo, NY with 5 actors. On the eve of a disastrous split-up caused by George's dalliance with a young ingénue, they receive one last shot at stardom: Frank Capra is coming to town to see their matinee, and if he likes what he sees, he might cast them in his remake of The Scarlet Pimpernel. Unfortunately, everything that could go wrong - does go wrong.

Everyman

A Medieval Morality Play

December 4, 5, 6 at 7:30 PM;
December 7 at 2:00 PM

A complacent Everyman is informed by Death of his approaching end. Exploring the hero's progression from despair/fear of death to a "Christian resignation that is the prelude to redemption," this play makes its point that we can take with us from this world nothing that we have received, only what we have given.

Everyman is the best surviving example of Medieval drama known as the "morality play", which uses allegory to dramatize the moral struggle Christianity envisions universal in every individual.

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown!

Book, music and lyrics by Clark Gesner - based on the comic strip "Peanuts" by Charles M. Schulz

February 27, 28 and March 5, 6, 7 at 7:30 PM;
March 1 and 8 at 2:00 PM

This fresh approach to the 1967 all-time classic opened on Broadway in 1999 and features the wit and wisdom of Charlie Brown, Snoopy and the whole Peanuts gang. Two new songs, Beethoven Day and My New Philosophy, join the twelve wonderful numbers of the original - including My Blanket and Me, The Kite, Little Known Facts, Suppertime and Happiness. Winner of 2 Tony Awards for Featured Actress & Featured Actor and 3 Drama Desk Awards for Best Revival, Featured Actress & Featured Actor.
