

LETTER FROM A BIRMINGHAM JAIL

A LENTEN COMMUNITY READING & DISCUSSION

The Apostle Paul penned some of his most powerful words from prison cells; what might he say to the church today? Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. offers us a profound, relevant possibility in his Letter from a Birmingham Jail.

During this Lenten season, listen to Dr. King speak to the church through Spirit-inspired words with fellow Methodists as pastors lead a discussion with attendees. Hear how King's words impact us and listen to one another's stories as we pursue the dream and seek first the kingdom of God.

I want you to know, beloved, that what has happened to me has actually helped spread the gospel, so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to everyone else that my imprisonment is for Christ. — Apostle Paul

What else is there to do when you are alone in the dull monotony of a narrow jail cell other than write long letters, think strange thoughts, and pray long prayers? — Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
