

What is running with the giants?

The Running with the Giants Youth Empowerment Summit is a two-week summer residential institute in which rising high school juniors and seniors from diverse backgrounds will engage in theological study, worship activities, and service-learning projects while discerning their call to ministry and love of service. The institute is designed to strengthen students' ways of thinking and feeling about the place and relevance of religion in their personal lives.

Fees:
There is no cost to attend the program.
